MARCH

Hey it's March! (already??)

There's a few of you that I haven't heard from in a while so do me a quick favor and reply with one or two lines and let me know that you're ok, how you're doing and what you've been up to - or just simply HOLLLA!

Even though some people enjoying the hibernation tip, I'm noticing more and more of you are coming out to events as the weather becomes saner! We've been getting your requests for the types of functions you would like to attend and the kind of music you would like to hear, so we're making plans to give it to you just the way you like it! For example, we've already got a boat cruise lined up for Caribana weekend! More info will be posted on www.djglenc.com by the time you get your mid-month reminder, so make sure we have the best e-mail address to reach you and your friends at so that we can keep you informed for the coming months!
