MAY

Hey Baby! Come sing some Karaoke with me!

Karaoke Nite @ Richmond Lounge - Thursday May 19, 2005

This is just a reminder of some upcoming events, but first, I must say - Chocolate Lounge was off the hook last week Saturday! We had an amazing time and I gotta thank my girls for coming out and starting off the dancefloor (you know who you are!). Looking forward to making another guest appearance there alongside Dj Skimpy Boy shortly - just working on confirming some dates so stay tuned....

Secondly, on behalf of Fresh Concepts Ent., I want to thank everyone who made it out to the Spring Invitational! Happy birthday once again to the lovely ladies that allowed us to host their b-day parties. We've just set the dates for all of our events for the rest of the year - which guarantees you at least one FCE event each month. We're looking forward to delivering the quality events that you're asking for, so keep your feedback coming and we'll do our best to incorporate your ideas into our action plans. Once again, thank you for your continued support!

I'm also looking forward to warmer spring days and sunshine - but it's like looking forward to lower gas prices...just when you think it's about to happen, it doesn't! ;o) I'm keeping my spirits up by looking at the busy summer ahead. For the people who have visitors coming in from out of town this summer and have been emailing/calling about what upcoming events are taking place, here are just some of the events that I will be a part of that you should mark on your calendars - as always, details on these and other quality events are on the website: www.djglenc.com
